

I graduated from Lewis University and have been a certified athletic trainer for five years. Over these five years, I worked strictly in the secondary school setting at three different high schools: Oak Park & River Forest High School, Notre Dame College Prep, and, where I currently work, Glenbrook South High School. I currently live in Morton Grove with my wife and two dogs. I like to golf, work out, and have a nice craft beer with my friends in my free time.